VOLUME XVII. CHICAGO, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1863. NUMBER 118.

THE ELECTIONS.

FROM BALTIMORE.

The Maryland Election—Her Voice is for Emancipation.

Henry Winter Davis Elected—Four Out of Five Radical Congressmen Chosen.

President Lincoln to Governor Bradford.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5, 1863.

Has the West been looking for my news to Montgomery Blair's Rockville sconce? It has come. Our radical emancipation vote have waited for election day. Returns come in slowly, but enough is known to insure that Henry H. Goldsborough is elected by a handsome majority for State Comptroller over Sam Maffit, copperhead; and this MARYLAND HAS EMPHATICALLY DECIDED FOR EMANCIPATION AND THE ADMINISTRATION.

There were also to be chosen a State Commissioner of the Land Office and five Congressmen. In the first district J. W. Critchlow, copperhead, runs 2; A. J. Cresswell very close, and it is conceded that the former is elected. In the second, third and fourth, Eli H. Webster, Henry Winter Davis and Frank Thomas have gone over the track with a rush. In the fifth district the issue is more doubtful, but Holland has probably been chosen over Calvert; thus giving Maryland four out of five radical unconditional emancipation Congressmen, led off by the gallant Henry Winter Davis. Glory enough for one day. Is not Postmaster Blair answered?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The conflict between the military and civil authorities in Maryland excites much comment. The last reply of the President carries the principal points in the correspondence.' It is dated at the War Department, and directed to Gov Bradford:

"SIR: Yours of the 31st ult. was received yesterday morn, and since then I have been most earnest attention to the subject matter. At my call, Gen. Schenck has attended, and the result is almost certain that the order will be issued at some of the voting places of election-day, unless prevented by his Excellency, Governor Bradford. He says that at some of these places votes will not affect it at all, or ruin a ticket, unless they be received under color of authority.

"The leading point of your letter is a protest against the exercise of military power to cause votes not found in the laws of Maryland. This brings us to the difference between Missouri and Maryland, with the same reason in favor. Missouri has by laws provided a test for voters which Maryland has not. For example, Gen. Trimble, captured fighting us at Gettysburg, is without doubt by his reason, a voter by the laws of Maryland. Even Gen. Schenck's order admits Trimble to vote if he comes upon only Unionists in those words. My order in Missouri, which you approve, and Gen. Schenck's order here, mean precisely the same. Each means to allow no voting to all legal men; and, as to whether a man is legal, each allows him to fix his own oath.

"Your suggestion, that nearly all candidates are loyal, I do not think quite meets the case in this point of view. Candidates for the legislature rely on those whose election may have dependence upon disloyal votes. Even men, when elected, do prove true; but such votes are given them with the expectation that they will prove false. Now, as I think, to change the power of the ballot, so as to prevent persistently disloyal persons from voting, controls more than all other means. Therefore, I think the best order would be to prevent disloyal persons from voting, leaving all others free to vote as they please. This would be in substance the order issued by Gen. Schenck, modified in accordance with the suggestions thrown out in the letter by Mr. Lincoln.

FROM MADISON.

Wisconsin 12,000 Union Majority on the Home Vote.

[Special Dispatch to Chicago Tribune.]

MADISON, Nov. 5, 1863.

Additional returns have come in that are unexpectedly favorable, and it is now probable the Union majority on the home vote may reach 12,000. The copperhead vote, except in a few localities where War Democrats made special efforts, is not much reduced, and the Union majority results mainly from stirring up Union men to vote who have sometimes neglected that duty. The soldiers' vote, as far as heard from, including eight companies of the 50th regiment, nearly decachments at Milwaukie and the 33d regiment at Murfreesboro, gives Lewis 1,600, and Palmer 50.

The Bank Comptroller's monthly statement shows $19,188 increase of circulation by Wisconsin banks in the last month, and a total increase during the year of $247,784, all secured by Federal or Free State stocks, except $60,000.

ILLINOIS RETURNS.

[Special Reports to the Chicago Tribune.]

FROM COOK COUNTY.

LEYDEN, Nov. 5.—The following is the vote of the town of Leyden: Carr, 149; Morris, 9. The vote on the rest of the ticket was the same. R. S. Hopkins, Union, was chosen supervisor.

FROM STANTON.

The Union ticket was elected in Evanston by 85 majority. The following gentlemen were elected:

Supervisor, Edward S. Taylor; Collector, John Tracy; Assessor, O. Bailey; Clerk, Geo. Gunnison; Commissioner of Highways, J. F. Willard; Overseer of Poor, John Sharp.

FROM SOUTH EVANSTON.

SOUTH EVANSTON, Nov. 4.—Returns continue to come in slowly, but all showing very large Union gains. Five county 925 Union—four towns to hear from.

Adams county 350 copperhead—a clear gain of 1,400 since last year.

Tazewell county 600 copperhead.

Will county 400 Union—a gain of 600 over last year.

Brookly county 400 Union.

Pearl county 41 Union—official.

FROM CAIRO.

CAIRO, Nov. 5.—Returns indicate that the 12th Congressional District will probably go Union.

Pulaski, Johnston and Perry counties, in southern Illinois, give Union majorities. Valley Forge precinct, gives 25 copperhead votes. Union Jackson and Williamson counties give heavy copperhead majorities, as usual.

FROM PERRY COUNTY.

VERNON, Ill., Nov. 5.—Vermont gives 31 majority for the Union ticket—16 last spring.

FROM DOUGLAS COUNTY.

ARCOLA, Nov. 5.—Douglas county gives 139 majority for the Unionists gain of 400.

FROM PUTNAM COUNTY.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

HENNEPIN, Nov. 5.—(Official.)—The following is the result of the late election for the Union constitution: R. Wright, County Treasurer, 197 maj.; O. D. Thompson, Clerk, by defeat; Coroner, 216 maj.; John Hall, Surveyor, County Surveyor, 156 maj. A gain of 181 over the last election for Congressman. Good for little Putnam.

FROM STEPHENSON COUNTY.

FREEPORT, Nov. 5.—Old Livingston gives the majority for the Union and Old Abe. H. K. Collins, the staunch editor of the Freeport Journal, is elected County Treasurer by the above figure. The cheers heard the town would be hoarse to-day go by—but they didn't. We are cheering for Old Livingston down this way.

FROM BUREAU COUNTY.

PRINCETON, Bureau Co., Ill., Nov. 5.—Bureau county 1,500 majority for the Union ticket.

FROM VERMILLION COUNTY.

DANVILLE, Nov. 5.—Vermillion county elected, average majority on the whole Union ticket, 300.

QUINCY, Nov. 5.—Adams county gives only a majority for the Union ticket. It will be small.

The official vote of the Adjutants but one in Edgar county, gives Lincoln 1,200 majority. Treasurer 214 majority. Giving the Democrats all the majority they claim. In that case, Lincoln has still sixty-four ahead. Good for old Pike! Hancock county is also reported to have gone for the Union ticket by a small majority.

FROM HENDERSON COUNTY.

OQUAWKA, Ill., Nov. 5.—This county gives a Union majority of about 300—a Union gain of 600.

WISCONSIN RETURNS.

FROM WALWORTH COUNTY.

ELKHORN, Wis., Nov. 5.—Walworth county gives at least 1,800 majority for the Union. We have met the enemy and repulsed them. At the time of [illegible] gain of 1,500 since last fall. We hold the field and allow the enemy to detail just to bury their own snakes.

New Jersey Returns.

TRENTON, Nov. 5.—New Jersey sends up the result of the election in this State as follows: Senators holding over—Republicans, 4; copperheads, 2. Newly elected Republicans, 6; copperheads, 3 in the House the copperheads elect 20, Republicans 20, and one in doubt in Burlington county. The Legislature will be one or stand 10 copperheads and 7 Republicans.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5, 1863.

THE APPOINTMENT OF GEN. BUTLER.

No one doubts the positively ability of his predecessor, Gen. Foster, but he has not the intensity of purpose which characterizes Gen. Butler, in the crushing out of the rebellion, by striking at its cause. It is considered in earnest of a purpose to conduct the war in that quarter on what are briefly known as "Butler principles." It is said here that upon Gen. Butler's taking command in North Carolina, an amazing humble in the province value of field negroes will take place.

MAJOR GEN. PERRYMEN.

Major Gen. Prentiss of Quincy, Ill., has tendered his resignation to the War Department, and it has been accepted.

THE RESULT IN MISSOURI.

Dispatches to members of the administration from radical Congressmen elected announce that the citizens' vote in St. Louis gives radical majority of 1,400, and that the radical majority in State's district amounts to 9,000. Radicals and Fusionists both claim the State.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Treasury Department to-day received dispatches from California announcing that a project is on foot to build two great lines of international telegraph—one from San Francisco north to Victoria and British Columbia, the other south to the City of Mexico. If the Treasury department will consent to admit materials for the work free of duty, it will be undertaken at once.

GEN. STEADMAN.

Brig. Gen. Steadman, of Ohio, the man who turned the crisis at Chickamauga by overthrowing without command to Thomas's of the enemy's guns, is here. He had an interview with the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Treasury and the President to-day.

A PRESIDENTIAL STORY.

A visitor congratulating Mr. Lincoln to-day on the prospects of his re-election, was answered by that indefatigable story-teller with an anecdote of an Illinois farmer who undertook to blast his own rocks. His first effort at producing an explosion proved a failure. He explained the cause by exclaiming: "Phaw, this powder has been shot once before!"

FROM THE HIGH SEAS.

The British steam corvette Falcone caught in Bay of Biscay, lowered her boats, fired guns of distress, rockets and blue lights. A vessel under full sail, five miles off, fired a signal gun and bore on her course. Bunch's Army and Navy Gazette says it was supposed that the vessel was a Federal merchantman afraid that the Federico was the decoy of a Confederate vessel—the natural fruit of British double dealing.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided the following points: a ship or boat for purposes of taxation does not include the value of the sails, rigging, ground, or other tackle, rope or cordage. Meters are liable to a duty of three per cent. ad valorem on all rasties, running rigging, stays, shrouds, ropes and sails, of whatever materials or description, whether made to order for individuals or made for general sale. All sails for vessels or water crafts are liable to a duty of three per cent. ad valorem.

Commissioner Lewis decides that tobacco captured on the high seas by a United States cruiser, whether it belonged at the time of capture to a manufacturer or to a purchaser, is not subject to a tax for internal revenue tax while in the hands of the Government, and the purchaser at Government sales takes the article discharged of all claim for internal revenue duties.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The Times special says: In magnificent contrast to the bank rupture and financial lunacy which ruled rain in Richmond, Secretary Chase's statistics of the Treasury will show to the world a clean balance sheet on the 1st of November. It will show the filling of several duties suspended requisitions. It will show the payment of every creditor of the Government, whose claim was on that day audited and established. There is pay due to the brave men who throughout the United States are settling for the Union. Secretary Chase has thirty millions piled up ready for them. The Paymaster General's requisitions for September and October will be honored whenever presented.

The Treasury vaults contain gold enough to meet all demands payable in gold for nine months to come. From the Customs alone, the receipts for some time sufficient to pay the specie interest on the public debt as it accrues.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Jno G. Nicolay, the President's private Secretary, has returned to his official position after three months' rest in the far West. He has brought with him the treaty recently concluded with a band of Indians in Dakotah, by which the Government of the United States acquires a title to all the lands discovered in that territory.

The Certificates of Indebtedness issued prior to the 4th of March last, recently ordered to be redeemed by the Secretary of the Treasury, amount to [illegible] in specie.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The following is Gen. Thomas' official communication to Gen. Halleck, under date of Chattanooga, 4th, 10 A. M.:

Major Fitzgibbon of the 15th Michigan infantry, overtook the combined guerrilla forces of Cooper, Kirk Williams and Scott, numbering 600 on the morning of the 2d inst., at Lawrenceburg. After a severe fight to blind night, Colonel Sloan with his 15th Michigan, of Sheridan's division, killed eight horses killed. The rebel loss was eight killed, seven wounded, and seventy-four prisoners, among the latter Scott in command. Sloan's loss was one killed and two wounded.

Gen. Bragg's troops took out up the Lookout Valley, in front of his position, we captured.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Herald's Army of the Potomac dispatch describes the army as in fine spirits. The cider have given out and the army is ready for any movement.

The New York Tribune's Washington special says: The Commissary General of Prisoners has received intelligence that the order for the exchange of prisoners has been received and distributed to the proper officers, and that orders to the parties for whom they were exchanged will be issued in a few days. Nothing has been done by the Commissioner of Prisoners on exchanges of prisoners.

A refugee from Richmond, a Northern woman named Mrs. Hamilton, on Sunday, Nov. 1, took a boat with three negroes at Jones' Neck, shot with them to the mouth of the Appomattox, at the foot of Main street, then other iron clads are on the Rocket. The chief source of security is [illegible] that large quantities [illegible] property are in process of construction by a rebel named Bradley, of Petersburg. Trains of cotton still have been coming in from the South, and the Central Railroad depot have been greatly enlarged. Twenty cotton mills have been erected, and twenty more are in process of erection. Two woolen mills in Petersburg are turning out 1,000 yards of cassimere, which is sold to the Government at $4 a yard.

The forces under Longstreet is said to be pretty close to Knoxville, and the Rebel papers say that Longstreet will be there in a few days. The Rebel papers say that Longstreet has been reinforced by 15,000 men from Lee's army.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Private information from the Army of the Potomac represents the army in the best condition for active operations. Our cavalry are in good condition, and the infantry are in excellent spirits. Our army is well supplied with provisions, and the weather is favorable for the movement of troops. The rebels are reported to be in a destitute condition.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

Matters at Corinth—Beauties of the Rebel Conscription.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, Nov. 5, 1863.

By the arrival of the steamer Liberty, from Memphis, we have dates to the afternoon of the 3d, and Corinth the 1st. The Memphis Bulletin contains a communication from a citizen of an upper county of Tennessee, detailing the most horrible cruelties practised by parties of rebel conscriptors in Gibson and Carroll counties. They take all legal men, running them down with bloodhounds, and hanging all kinds of hostile ones on the spot. They went to the house of an old man named Tandell, in Gibson, took away horse he had, all his young stock, and even clothing belonging to his daughter. Tandell is an old soldier of 1812, between 75 and 80 years of age. The same crew of ruffians then went to Milan, where they broke into the store of one Hunkinford, took $400 or $500 in money and all the goods they could carry. They also broke into the store of Wm. Harris, and carried off an hundred bushels of corn and a thousand bundles of fodder, demanding him as a traitor to the Confederacy, and concealing a young man in the same vicinity, who was found unable to bear a musket. They stripped him and turned him loose.

News from Corinth states that Gen. Dodge is to take charge of a division in the field immediately. Brig. Gen. Stephenson, late Colonel of the 8th Missouri, is temporarily in command of the district of Corinth.

The most essential thing, writes Capt. H. H. Pope was Judge Advocate, adjourned on the 31st ult., sine die.

About two-thirds of the 1st Alabama cavalry were recently surrounded by a large force of rebels near Russellville, Alabama. They cut their way out and arrived at headquarters at Glendale all safe. The balance were killed or captured.

Lieut. Col. O. J. Dods, recently returned, having escaped capture after two weeks absence.

A brisk skirmish took place at Iuka about the 30th ult. The contending parties were a force of guerillas and an Ohio brigade. A few were killed on both sides. My informant was without further particulars.

I learn from the officers of the steamer S. C. Baker, who left Eastport this morning, that all is quiet in that vicinity, and it was reported there were rumors that the rebels had skedaddled from Maysville after doing all the damage they could.

CAIRO, Nov. 5.—By steamer Liberty, from Memphis, arrived this evening, we have dates to the afternoon of the 3d. The last issue of the Bulletin of that date, we learn that the Confederates made another attack on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad over Tuesday night, the 3d inst. Col. Hatch, commanding there, was ready to receive them; after a brief but sanguinary conflict in the darkness the rebels repulsed, several prisoners were captured, among whom was Brig. Gen. Georges and thirteen of his staff. We have no definite reports of the number of killed and wounded.

At Germantown, on the 23 inst., Lieut.-Col. Lounds and Major Harrod, of the 2d Illinois cavalry, had a disagreement while at supper, when the latter fired at Col. Lounds, who fell into the table, and afterwards seized hold of him, and fired two more shots, causing his death in a few minutes. Major Harrod was arrested and confined at Memphis.

The steamer Rose Hambleton was fired into by a guerilla on the 28th, five miles below Des Arc, and had a dangerously wounded pilot. The gunboat Tuscumbia opened on the guerillas, scattering them.

The Memphis Journal learns from the steamer Des Moines, arrived there on the 3d inst., that the rebels entered Pine Bluff and burned the depot.

Brig. Gen. Reid, commanding post, has issued a general order, No. 37, forbidding men coming selling citizens clothing, and keeping men in military and naval guise, thereby enabling them to desert. Violation of this order subjects offenders to be treated as spies, or otherwise punished, at the discretion of the Provost Marshal, subject to the approval of the Commander of Department.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 5.—Lieut. Col. Lounds and Major Herrod, of the 6th Illinois cavalry, had an altercation at the supper table last evening, at Germantown, Tennessee. Major Herrod drew a pistol and shot Lieut. Col. Lounds as he left the table, killing him instantly.

W. H. Hatch, of the 2d Iowa Cavalry, drew his sabre upon the soldiers to prevent them from lynching Major Herrod upon the spot. The remains of Lieut. Col. Lounds were brought to Memphis this evening. Major Herrod also came in irons.

A rebel force, reported to be 1,500 strong, made an attack upon Collierville this morning. Gen. Hurlbut's forces are moving to the support of the garrison there.

FROM SPRINGFIELD.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 5, 1863.

Governor Yates returned from the East to-day. He brings glowing intelligence of the Union cause in all the Eastern States. The people are rallying en masse to the support of the Administration, and decided vengeance upon all those tories who have heretofore opposed the war or placed obstacles in the way.

Hosts of Union men met our brave Governor at every point, and, with warm hearts welcomed him as the truest soldiers' friend of the war. While absent the Governor spoke to thousands in New York, Brooklyn, Washington and other cities, and found the fire of patriotism burning bright from the East to the far West.

The statement made by the Springfield correspondent of the Missouri Republican, that the Lincoln (Union) Herald has suspended, is untrue. The paper is ably edited, and will continue to labor for the cause of the Union.

The War Department announces that the $100 bounty, due at the expiration of the time of enlisted men, will be paid by the Paymasters to veteran volunteers remaining upon the usual discharge papers from their first enlistment.

FROM CINCINNATI.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5, 1863.

A soldier named Warmsley, of the 17th New York regiment, was shot here to-day by a Lieutenant of the Provost Guard while endeavoring to escape. His wound is painful, but not dangerous. Eight men of the same regiment fell off the train near Bellaire, on the Steubenville Railroad. Three were killed and five severely wounded.

A general order was issued here this morning, prohibiting the sale of liquor to any soldiery in the city.

The lots of 300-pound Parrott guns now this city, to-day, reached favorably. Almost all the shells exploded quite near the target, which was set up at a distance of about three miles.

Gov. Bramlette, of Kentucky, has issued a proclamation in regard to the draft. The quota, he says, will be 12,000 men.

FROM GALLATIN, TENN.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

GALLATIN, Nov. 5, 1863.

Colonel McConnel, with a battalion of the 21st Ohio volunteers, has just returned from a scout after guerillas. He hid two skirmishes with them, killing one, wounding several, and capturing ten; also, a number of horses, mules, arms, &c.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 5, 1863.

Gen. Hinton, a rebel recruiting officer, was captured, while concealed in a hay stack, on election day, in Cooper county. He had enlisted 1,500 men for the Southern army.

Edwards, the recently deposed U. S. District Attorney, has been elected Circuit Judge in St. Charles county by 600 majority.

Eighteen from the interior come in daily. The militia vote is nine-tenths Radical, in the constituencies of Gov. Gamble.

THE RICHMOND PRISONERS

Adventures of an Escaped Prisoner.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Mr. Robinson, who was confined in Libby Prison, Richmond, and Castle Thunder, Petersburg, has arrived here. He was captured in the early part of September, and was confined in Libby Prison. Prisoners are allowed to send from the field. They were almost all in a famishing condition.

They were four days on the road between the two points, and all depend to eat during that time was two hard crackers each day. On their arrival at Richmond, they were taken to Libby Prison, where they had two days' more rations, being until they could draw. Dailing all of which time they had not a mouthful to eat. Some of them, who were fortunate enough to have a little money, offered as high as five dollars for a piece of bread, but the officers in charge would not let it be carried to them. Mr. Robinson left Richmond on the 15th of October last, in company with about 200 other Union prisoners. When the vessel neared Drury's Bluff, the prisoners were made to lie flat down on deck, and a strict guard was placed over them, that they might be prevented from seeing the fortifications.

THE WAR IN NORTH CAROLINA.

NEWBERN, N. C., Nov. 5.—The report that Gen. Foster is to command the Army of the Potomac, in connection with the army under Meade, is premature. It does not allude to the Archduke Maximilian.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times thinks it doubtful that the French Chambers will accede to the guarantees demanded by the Archduke, viz: the integrity of the late empire, and a loan.

The Nord says there is no truth in the report that Russia is building war vessels in the Black Sea. Her relations with the Porte have been disturbed.

It is stated that Austria and Prussia have agreed to decline the solicitation of Denmark in the conflict with Denmark, regarding it as of a purely domestic character.

Liverpool, Oct. 27th.—Mustbal Nel rose to Russia in a speech at extraordinary session regarding Poland.

The Morning Post says the Federals must be aware that any serious reverse just now would leave neutrals no alternative but to recognize the South.

W. H. Lindsay, in a letter to the Times, denounces the Government policy towards the North as inconsistent with neutrality or honesty.

The King of Denmark, in a speech, said if he was overpowered by Germany, he would proclaim a Danish republic.

The Government Securities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Sales of 5-20 bonds were so great last week, that the supply of printed bonds is exhausted, as it will take a fortnight to fill the previous subscription. It is expected that sales will be small during the rest of the month. Government is using all possible dispatch in printing notes for the national banks.

IOWA SANITARY MATTERS.

Meeting on Wednesday Morning.

A number of delegates from local Sanitary Commissions and Aid Societies in Iowa, and other ladies and gentlemen interested in the work of supplying sick and wounded Iowa soldiers, met at the Methodist Church Block, in this city, at 10 o'clock a. m., on Wednesday, and were called to order by Rev. J. J. Lyons, Corresponding Secretary of the Iowa Sanitary Commission. Rev. JESSE HARRIS, D.D., Senator from Iowa, was called to the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. James Kidd, of Clinton. Senator Harris made some remarks on taking the chair upon the magnificent benevolence of the work of the National and State Sanitary Commissions, and the importance of a complete and harmonious general organization in the state. Rev. George F. Magoun, of Iowa, was appointed Secretary, and Miss E. M. Bowman, of Burlington, Assistant Secretary.

Rev. Mr. Kynett was called upon to state the objects of the meeting.

Mrs. Marsh, of Mount Pleasant, introduced for information a call recently issued for a convention of Old Original Methodist Blood and Soil Democrats and Dunleith Wellites, which was read to the meeting, and the objects of the convention stated.

Inquiries were made by members of the Legislature in respect to the transportation of sanitary goods sent from Iowa through the United States and Western Sanitary Commissions respectively, and in respect to the Soldiers' Aid Society of the Iowa Sanitary Commission. Rev. JESSE HARRIS, D.D., Senator from Iowa, was called to the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. James Kidd, of Clinton. Senator Harris made some remarks on taking the chair upon the magnificent benevolence of the work of the National and State Sanitary Commissions, and the importance of a complete and harmonious general organization in the state. THE PEOPLE.

The intelligence from Chattanooga is astonishing. Our commissariat is perfect and the army in good condition. There will be no permanent reverse, however, until a victory clears the road away from our front. As we said yesterday, we think it is not to be considered seriously pressed.

Our Cairo dispatches are rarefied and intense. The election from Arkansas are of significance, and the Union cause that will is strengthening daily. The action at Pine Bluff Ark., and Fort Smith, in the Indian country, are reported the rebel surrenders and in the the full force of the outraged communities.

Think of it. A majority of 30,000 Maryland for the Union and the people overwhelmed, and begins the rational destruction of the vanishing slave power. Missouri gives in her loyal majority of 40,000 against the rebels. Missouri will be better than ever before. The rebels were defeated in every direction.

In another column we give the election of the Governor of the United States, to congress the American having position, a purely national with a view to the establishment of Irish freedom, and the Irish, the proceedings have been partially given to the public, and by which has been prepared and which has been received by the Irish country. An address to the Irish people from this meeting of that nationality in this city, and to the Irish people of Ireland with this closing day's report.

THE NORTH-WESTERN FAIR.

To-day closes the two weeks festival of the Northwestern Fair for the benefit of Sanitary Commission. It continued a tide of success until this its last day, when to give a fresh push, which has been nobly and nobly to complete the work. No other Fair held for purposes of charity ever had the popularity of this. Chicago has never yielded similar results, and with the present success we feel that the offered response we give this evening will find a public in the spirit of liberality which has characterized the Fair. It was Northwestern in its inception, and it has been Northwestern in its progress. It was Northwestern in its liberality. We cannot forget to say that the Irish, the Irish, the Irish,
